Please let this letter serve as notice to the Republican Party – Pike County that I have officially withdrawn my candidacy for Pike County Chancery Clerk.

Actually I am as surprised as most of you. Personal events and opportunities presented themselves this last month and I am now focused on a new path in my life. I am planning to retire and close the real estate office and pursue new adventures and experiences that include traveling and redoing a house in Maine.

It was a pleasure and an experience of a lifetime. I was particularly proud to say that all my fellow candidates were honest, kind and fair with their campaigns and it was my honor to be on the campaign trail with them.

My Best to All, and my prayers for a continued good campaign and hopefully, a Republican winner!!

Sincerely,

Jan Seall
